► 5-8 2011 International Bridge Conference

David L. Lawrence Convention Center, Pittsburgh. Sponsored by the Engineer's Society of Western Pennsylvania, the IBC annually attracts over 1,600 bridge owners and engineers, senior policymakers, government officials, bridge designers and construction executives as well as suppliers from throughout the U.S. and abroad. The conference will focus on bridge financing, bridge regulations, new project delivery methods and safety. For more information, visit www.internationalbridgeconference.org.

► 13 Outlook 2011 Midyear Update

McGraw-Hill Cos. Headquarters, New York City. McGraw-Hill Construction's Outlook 2011 Midyear Update conference brings together local professionals from design and contracting firms, building product manufacturing firms and industry associations to hear the construction industry forecast for the remainder of 2011. For more information, visit www.construction.com/events/outlook2011midyearNY/default.asp.

► 13-14 NeoCon World Trade Fair

Merchandise Mart, Chicago. Explore and discover thousands of groundbreaking products and resources at the NeoCon World Trade Fair in Chicago. This trade show boasts the largest exhibition and conference for commercial interiors and offers the architecture and design community CEU-accredited seminars and association forums with top-notch keynote speakers. For more information, please visit www.neocon.com

► 14-15 ENR-Construction Users Roundtable (CURT) Construction Business Forum

The Westin Peachtree Plaza, Atlanta. While some construction sectors remain sluggish, many owners believe the industry is turning around. However, when the economy does rebound, owners will be faced with finding new investment sources to fund the nation's industrial, manufacturing, energy and public infrastructure. The recession has caused owners to look more carefully at new project delivery systems and how they and their contractors can better share risk and reward. The goal is to execute projects more efficiently and more profitably. For more information, please visit www.construction.com/events/2011/cbf/default.asp.

► 26-28 Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) International Annual Conference and the Every Building Show

National Resort and Convention Center, Washington, D.C. This conference and show is the one event every year that brings together the foremost experts and resources in the commercial real estate industry. Building owners and managers from across the U.S. and around the world will gather to discuss current trends and best practices and learn firsthand what strategies industry leaders are employing to stay ahead. For more information, please visit www.boma.org.
